

Policies & Procedures for Students with Disabilities

621 college and university representatives identified the policies and procedures related to students with disabilities currently in place on their campuses. The top 7 policies and procedures are below. Learn more at CeDaRdatabase.org

*38% also have a provision of interpreters and Communication Access Realtime Translation (CART) for all major events and 36% also provide opportunities for students with disabilities and without a high school diploma to take courses.

The National Center for College Students with Disabilities (NCCSD) is funded through a four-year grant from the Office of Postsecondary Education, U.S. Department of Education (P116D150005), administered through the Office of Postsecondary Education. This project was developed in partnership with the Institute for Community Inclusion (ICI) at the University of Massachusetts Boston. Opinions expressed on this page or associated content may not be the opinions of NCCSD, AHEAD or the U.S. Department of Education. Questions, concerns or requests about accessibility should be sent to nccsd@ahead.org.