

Announcing the NCCSD Student Video Competition!

We invite all student video producers to submit their creative, innovative and AMAZING YouTube or Vimeo videos for college students who have disabilities or chronic illnesses, or those who are culturally Deaf.

This competition will be reviewed by a panel of experts, and winners will appear in an exclusive online gallery.

Top winners will be awarded cash prizes!

WHAT ARE WE LOOKING FOR?

NCCSD wants to offer online live-action or animated videos on its websites as a way for disabled students to share their own perspectives, experiences, lessons learned in college, or advice for other students. We also hope to show the diversity and contributions of college students with disabilities in the U.S., as well as ongoing needs or barriers that still exist.

HOW TO ENTER

All videos must be submitted by 11:59 pm PT on April 17, 2017 via email to nccsd@ahead.org

Must-Read Instructions and criteria are at www.nccsdonline.org/video-competition

JUDGING & PRIZES

Video submissions will be reviewed by a panel of judges in the fields of video production, communications and disability.

All video submissions will be reviewed and the Top 10 will be eligible for prizes:

Two $1,000 awards will be given, one each, to the two winners of the “Best Video Produced by an Individual.”

One $1,000 award will be given to the winner of the “Best Video Produced by a Group”

One $1,000 award will be given to the winner of “Most Original Video” that shows a unique perspective, creative approach, or original format. These three winners will be announced once judging is completed.

The remaining 7 videos will be entered into our Viewers’ Choice Award competition. These videos will be posted on the NCCSD website for our visitors to view and choose their favorite.

One $1,000 prize will go to the winner of the Viewers’ Choice Award by July 2016.
